COMPLIANCE

Our company observes and abides to laws and regulations to be in Compliance with the existing legal framework on a permanent basis. Compliance is a vital component of our corporate culture.

We consider that there is infringement of compliance when committed by or against our partners, in the exercise of their work duties, in Cyprus or abroad, violations of current laws or internal guidelines. Such infringements may be: criminal corruption offenses, infringements of competition law and cartel law, offenses relating to data protection law as well as accounting and financial offenses, and breach of human rights.

In order for us to detect and prevent violations of compliance, we depend substantially on the support of our employees, our customers and our business partners. Any notification of non-compliance brought up to our attention by our customers, collaborators or business partners shall be taken in consideration and soundly investigated.

To report such incidents, please use the area “contact us”. Whether you report a concern or seek advice: the matter will be treated strictly confidential.
